

South West Peak Landscape Partnership Fungi Identification Guide

If you see any of the species below or anything that looks similar please contact the

South West Peak Landscape Partnership at:

SWP@peakdistrict.gov.uk

Please include a map location or grid reference

Yellow Spindles

Plain Earthtongue

Star Pinkgill

Pointed Club

Scarlet Waxcap

Butter Waxcap

Pink Waxcap

Meadow Waxcap

Crazed-Cap Mushroom

These fungi typically appear in habitats like those depicted below:

Close-Grazed Pasture

Mixture of Tussocky and Shorter Sward

Traditionally Managed Hay Meadows

Sloping, Unimproved Ground

Short-Grazed Grassland on Moorland Edges

Often Associated with Moss Layer

